

Volunteer Opportunity: Hackettstown Land Use Board Member

Are you passionate about thoughtful community development and local planning? The Town of Hackettstown is seeking dedicated volunteers to serve on its Land Use Board, which plays a vital role in shaping the town's future.

About the Role:

As a member of the Land Use Board, you will review applications related to zoning, planning, and land development. Your insights and decisions will help ensure that projects align with Hackettstown's master plan and support responsible growth in the community.

Commitment:

- Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month .
- Additional preparation time is needed to review application materials prior to meetings.

Ideal Volunteers:

- Residents who care about the future of Hackettstown
- Individuals with backgrounds in planning, engineering, law, architecture, or construction (not required)
- Thoughtful, fair-minded community members with a willingness to learn

Why Volunteer?

- Make a meaningful impact on your community
- Gain experience in municipal planning and zoning
- Collaborate with town leaders and fellow residents

Help shape Hackettstown's tomorrow – serve on the Land Use Board today!

For more information or to express interest, please contact Mayor Jerry DiMaio at mayor@hackettstown.net.