ARTICLE 3. PEDDLERS AND SOLICITORS

8-25. Permit and License Required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of peddler, solicitor, or itinerant merchants as defined in Section 8-26 of this Article within the Town without first obtaining a license therefor as provided herein.

8-26. Definitions.

(a) Person: The word "person" as used shall include the singular and plural and shall mean and include any person, firm or corporation, association, club, partnership, society or any other organization.

(b) Peddler: A "peddler" is any person who goes from place to place by traveling on the streets and roads or from house to house carrying, conveying or transporting goods, wares, or merchandise for the purpose of selling and delivering them to customers. The word "peddler" shall include the words "hawker" and "huckster".

(c) Solicitor or Canvasser: A "Solicitor" is any person who goes from place to place by traveling on the streets or roads or from house to house taking or attempting to take orders for the sale of goods, wares and merchandise, or personal property of any nature whatsoever for future delivery, or for services to be furnished or performed in the future, whether or not such person has, carries or exposes for sale a sample of the object to be sold and whether or not they are collecting advance payments on such sales. The word "solicitor" shall include the word "canvasser", provided, however, that this definition shall not include wholesalers calling on retail merchants.

(d) Merchandising: "Merchandising" shall include all goods, wares, food, fruit, vegetables, farm products, magazines, periodicals, and all kinds of articles of personal property for domestic use; and orders or contracts for a service, home improvement or alterations shall be considered merchandise within the terms of this Article.

8-27. Exceptions from License.

The requirements of this Article shall not apply to the following:

(a) Any person honorably discharged from the military service of the United States possessing a peddler's license issued in conformity with N.J.S.A. 45:24-9.

(b) Any person who is an exempt fireman of a volunteer Fire Department as defined by N.J.S.A. 45:24-9, possessing a license in conformity with said law.

(c) Any person engaged in the delivery of goods, wares or merchandise or other articles or things in the regular course of business, to the premises or persons who had previously ordered the same or were entitled to receive the same by reasons of a prior agreement.

(d) Any school, charitable, political or civic organization, benevolent society, service club, or organization not for profit which is located in, or has a substantial membership from the Town of Hackettstown, and carrying identification assigned by the organization the canvasser represents shall be excepted from the provisions of this Article.

8-28. Application for License.

Every applicant for a license under this Article shall file with the Chief of Police a sworn written application containing the following information:

- (a) Name and description of the applicant.
- (b) Permanent home address and full local address of the applicant.
- (c) A brief statement of the nature of the business and a description of the merchandise or service to be sold.
- (d) If employed, the name and address of the employer, together with credentials establishing the exact relationship.
- (e) The length of time for which the license is desired.
- (f) If a vehicle is to be used, a description of such vehicle and its license number.
- (g) The place where the goods or property to be sold or offered for sale or manufactured or produced, where such goods or property are located at the time such application is filed, and the proposed method of delivery.
- (h) A photograph of the applicant taken within (60) days immediately prior to the date of application, which photograph shall clearly show the head and shoulders of the applicant and shall measure 2" x 2".
- (i) Two (2) business references located in the County of Warren, State of New Jersey; or in lieu thereof, such other available evidence of the character and business responsibility of the applicant as will enable an investigator to properly evaluate such character and responsibility.
- (j) A statement as to whether the applicant has been convicted of any crime, misdemeanor, or violation of any municipal ordinance, the nature of the offense and the punishment or penalty assessed therefor.

8-29. Fees. (5-24-18)

(a) Registration Fee: At the time the application is filed, a fee of fifty ($50.00) dollars shall be paid to the Town Clerk to cover the cost of processing the application and investigating the facts stated therein.

(b) License Fee: The license fee which shall be charged by the Town Clerk for the issuance of a license hereunder shall be one hundred ($100.00) dollars per day, two hundred ($200.00) dollars per week, two hundred fifty ($250.00) dollars per month, and three hundred ($300.00) dollars per year.

8-30. Investigation and Issuance of License.

When the aforesaid application is properly filled out and signed by the applicant, the original and duplicate thereof are filed with the Chief of Police, who shall make or cause to be made, such investigation of the applicant's business responsibility and moral character as deemed necessary for the protection of the public good. The duplicate shall be kept on file in the Police Department upon completion of the investigation.

(a) If, as a result of such investigation, the applicant's character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the Chief of Police shall endorse on such application his disapproval and the reasons therefor, and shall notify the applicant that the application is disapproved, and that no license shall be issued. Any determination by the Chief of Police that an application is unsatisfactory shall be based on one or more of the following findings with respect to the applicant:

- (1) Conviction of a crime involving turpitude.
- (2) Prior violation of a peddling or soliciting ordinance.
- (3) Previous fraudulent acts or conduct.
- (4) Record of breaches of soliciting contracts.
- (5) Evidence of bad character.
- (6) The background investigation shall include a determination of whether a person has a criminal record by cross referencing that person's name and fingerprints with those on file with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and/or the New Jersey State Bureau of Identification within the New Jersey State Police. All costs related to securing the fingerprint check will be at the applicant's cost. If fingerprint checks are not available except to the individual whose background is being checked then the individual will secure the fingerprint check at their cost.

In the absence of any such findings, the Chief of Police shall find the applicant "satisfactory."

(b) If, as a result of such investigation, the character and business responsibility of the applicant are found to be satisfactory, the Chief of Police shall issue the license to the applicant. Such license shall contain the signature of the issuing officer and shall show the name, address, and photograph of the licensee, the class of license issued, the kinds of goods or services to be sold thereunder, the date of issue, the length of time the license shall be operative, and the license number and other identifying description of any vehicle used in peddling or soliciting activity licensed.

8-31. Duties of Licensee.

Every holder of a peddler's license or solicitor's license issued under the authority of R.S. 45:24-9 shall be required to display such license with them while engaged in the business or activity licensed within the corporate limits of the Town of Hackettstown. The licensee shall produce such license at the request of any official of said Town or of any resident of said Town with whom they wish to conduct their said business or activity. Every such licensee shall restrict their selling activity within the Town of Hackettstown to the hours of between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. prevailing time on Mondays through Fridays, shall notify the Police Officer on duty at least once in every week in which they plan to conduct said activity, and before commencing their selling or soliciting activity. Such notification shall include a statement of the general area of the Town in which the licensee intends to conduct said activity, and a schedule of dates and times when said activity shall be conducted. The licensee shall notify the Police Officers on duty of any change in area or time solicitation, should such changes be made during the week.

8-32. Prohibited Practices.

No licensee shall allow any other person to use the license issued hereunder, and the use of such license by any person other than the licensee shall constitute grounds for revocation of the license.

8-33. Enforcement.

It shall be the duty of any Police Officer of the Town to enforce the provisions of this Article and require any person seen peddling or soliciting who is not known by such officer to be duly licensed, to produce their peddler's or solicitor's license.

8-34. Records.

The Chief of Police shall maintain a record of all licenses issued under the provision of this Article and shall record therein all convictions for violations of this Article and other pertinent circumstances and incidents.

8-35. Revocation of License.

(a) Licenses issued under the provisions of this Article may be revoked by the Council of the Town after notice and hearing for any of the following causes:

1. Fraud: misrepresentation or false statement contained in the application for license.
2. Fraud: misrepresentation or false statement by the licensee in the course of conducting the business licensed.
3. Any violation of this Article.
4. Conviction of any crime involving moral turpitude.
5. Conducting the business licensed in an unlawful manner or in such a manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or a menace to the health, safety or general welfare of the public.

(b) Notice of the hearing for revocation of a license shall be given in writing. Such notice shall set forth the specific grounds of complaint and the time and place of hearing, and shall be sent by registered mail to the licensee at their last known address at least five (5) days prior to the date set for hearing.

(c) In the event the Chief of Police shall determine that there has been a violation of any of items 1 through 5 of Paragraph (a) above, then and in that case the Chief shall immediately notify the Town Council of said violation and shall order the licensee to suspend further operation until a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

8-36. Appeal.

Any person aggrieved by the action of the Chief of Police or of the Town Clerk in the denial of a license as provided in Section 8-30 of this Article, shall have the right to appeal to the Town Council.

Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the Council within fourteen (14) days after the notice of the action complained of has been mailed to such person's last known address, a written statement setting forth fully the grounds for the appeal. The Town Council shall set a time and place for hearing on such appeal, and notice of such hearing shall be given to the applicant in the same manner as provided in Section 8-35 of this Article for notice of hearing on revocation. The decision of the Town Council on such appeal shall be final and conclusive.

8-37. Expiration and Renewal of License.

No license issued under the provision of this Article shall extend past one (1) year from the date that the license was issued. Any such license may be renewed, upon payment of a fee of $10.00 and upon the submission of a new application in conformity with the requirements of Section 8-28 of this Article or, in lieu thereof, a sworn statement in writing setting forth all changes in the information contained in the application for the expired license which are necessary to bring said application completely up to date. Such new application or statement in lieu thereof shall be subject to the provisions and standards set forth in Section 8-28 of this Article.

8-38. Penalty for Violation.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this Article shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine not to exceed Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or to imprisonment not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both. (12-13-71)

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub.L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN). Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Additional Information: The requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application-investigation will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice in the Federal Register describing any system(s) of records in which that agency may also maintain your records, including the authorities, purposes, and routine uses for the system(s).
